News & Forthcoming Events

St Thomas' Church commemorated the 100 year end of World War 1 with a concert on Saturday evening and our Remembrance Service on Sunday. Hand made poppies were placed around the village. We remembered all those lost in conflicts in the past century. Both events were packed and it was great to welcome so many people into our Church. It was especially good to see so many children, brought along by their parents and to have a youngster play the bugle. Also at St Thomas' – Sunday 9th December – Nine Lessons & Carols. 4.00 p.m. Refreshments served and Friday 14th December at 7.00 p.m. Salvation Army Carols. Bring & Share buffet.
